

POLITICAL.

ARKANSAS.

MEETING OF THE GAMBLERS.

At the Cabinet meeting yesterday all the members were present. The session lasted until p. m. After transacting routine business a general question was taken up. The president announced that at present advice would take no action in the matter further to preserve the peace.

The case of neither side has as yet been officially presented to him. He is not aware where the case of the gamblers is presented by either State officers, neither does he know exactly anything about the legality of the election in Arkansas and the adoption of the State constitution under which Garland and others were indicted last year. Of course until all the facts are known, he is presenting him he cannot act. There, Messrs. Poland

Ward are here (they are expected this week) it is hoped to obtain some intelligent idea of the situation from them.

The following dispatches were received tonight:

THE SITUATION.

ACTION OF THE SENATE.

LITTLE ROCK, NOV. 17.—The Senate to-passed a joint resolution commending the protection of Governor Garland in the Smith matter. A bill was also introduced and passed to a third reading authorizing the Governor to offer a reward of $1,000 for the apprehension of the party charged with conspiring for the overthrow of Government, and other crimes of like character.

THE SAME QUESTION.

which has remained since Smith's removal.

been made public still prevails. Nothing yet has heard from Smith, nor has there been demonstration in his behalf by anybody in part of the State.

THE INVESTIGATING COMMITTEE.

Judge Poland, of the Congressional investigating Committee, left for Washington tonight. Judge Ward, of the same committee, remains here. It is reported Judge Poland was summoned to Washington by the Attorney General.

VOTE OF THANKS FOR BAXTER.

The General Assembly has passed a joint resolution of thanks to Governor Baxter for his course during the past two years.

Governor Garland received the following patch-to-night from Helena:

NO TROOPS BEING RAISED FOR SMITH.
The dispatch from Little Rock, stating troops are being raised here to support Smith false. Everything is perfectly quiet.

H. B. ROBINSON, Sheriff
Robinson is a colored man. He was elec under the new constitution by the Republican Phillips county. In no locality of the State there any disturbances, or any attempts to gangs men in the interest of Smith.

LOUISIANA.
A SANGUINARY PROPOSITION.
[Special to the Republican.]
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—The *Shreve
Times*, the leading journal of North Louisian its issue of November 18, says: "We want an representations on the returning board, no favorable concessions from Kellogg and Packard. If L. Smith is counted in over W. M. Levy, Twitcheil is counted in over Elam, let Smith Twitcheil be killed; if Johnson and Tyler, let Soto, be counted in over Seales and Schmeissner. The New Orleans Republican thinks, or is King, Leveaux and Johnson, in Caddo, are counted in over Vaughn, Hoot and Johnson, Tyler, Keating and Leveaux, and kill and so let every officer, from Congressman down to constable, in every district and parish of State, be served. We cannot afford to be deceived by a ring of political scoundrels after we have triumphed. Human life may be precious, but lives of all these carpet-baggers and Rascals politicians in Louisiana are valueless compared

To rightly understand the full force of preposition it should be stated that George Smith was the Republican candidate for Congress in that district, and it is still doubtful whether he will be elected. Twifield ran in the same district for State Senator, and has already been elected, and Keating, Leverage Johnson have probably been elected to the Legislature from Shreveport, though the vote is close that only the official count can decide. The statement telegraphed by the Associated Press regarding frauds in the returns from St. James parish proves to be a canard. The returns were regularly made to the returning board several days ago. The affidavit made against the offisigned by a man named Kelly, who cannot follow. An affidavit has been made against her for perjury. United States Commissioner C. C. Democrat, at once released the supervisee on his own recognizance on ascertaining the facts.

REMOVAL OF UNITED STATES TROOPS.

NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 17.—The United States troops who have been occupying the State Capitol for some time past were withdrawn at 8 o'clock a. m., and Captain Lawler, with a force of all thirty policemen, supplied their place.

A FUGITIOUS GENTLEMAN.

John M. Sandighe, who was elected by the turning board to fill the vacancy occasioned by General Longstreet's resignation, declines the reason that he has no expression or int tion from the board that a place would be made for another Conservative member, and in placing the party he should represent on something like equality with that of its opponents and not having been requested by the executive committee of the Democratic and Conservative party to act in such capacity on the return board. The board resumed the counting at twelve o'clock in the second ward of the city.

VACANCY IN THE BOARD FILLED.

The members of the returning board selected O. Arango to fill the vacancy in the number. He took the required oath and was seated.

BOILER EXPLOSION.

NEW YORK, Nov. 17.—The steam-tug Little ploded the boiler this afternoon near Hell G. East river. There were on board the Captain David A. Havens, Engineer Charles Warren, Fireman John Hogan and steward deck-hand names unknown; also, two other men. When the explosion took place the steamer girls Jackson was passing, and the crew jumped. Captain Havens in a dying condition, he was taken aboard the tugboat "Clayton" and was slightly scalded and cut on the head. John Hogan, with right leg fractured. No trace of the five others who were on the tug could be found. The Virginia Jackson steamed to Bellevue hospital pier, and the sufferers were promptly cared for. Captain Havens died at 7 p. m. Warren, as soon as his injuries were attended to, for home. According to Hogan the Lilly was

MEXICAN CATTLE THIEVES.
GALVESTON, Nov. 11.—Five droves of stock have been crossed into Mexico within the last twenty-four hours. They were crossed by the corporate limit at Brownsville. Deputy special agent Rock rode to the state line to-day, waited upon Alcide Puente, who sent the cowboys with Rock. They met three arm-thieves at the edge of Matamoros, driving twenty-three horses. The thieves fled on their horns and the bees, which had been stolen, were captured. Twenty-three more were captured at crossing. The animals are in possession of Mexican authorities. Mexican soldiers

SUFFERING IN NEBRASKA.
OMAHA, NOV. 17.—The weather to-day has been very cold, with high winds. The news from grammar-school districts is meagre, but confirms the previous statements as to the extent of suffering. The State Relief Society are shipping supplies to the afflicted districts daily. Gen. Ord received a telegram from Washington instructing him to ascertain what amount of clothing will be needed by the sufferers. He hoped this notion of the Secretary of War looked a distribution of soldiers' garments to these suffering people.

WENT ON A BURGLARS' DEN.
New York, Nov. 17.—A burglars' den on Bergen plank road, near Hackensack bridge, Jersey City, was raided upon last night and seven burglars arrested. Two thousand dollars worth of stolen goods were recovered.

The receiver of the Bank of the Commonwealth, which failed in September, announced that a final dividend of twenty per cent. will be paid November 20 to all creditors except shareholders.

IT TAKES in a man in the State of Ohio so much love and graft that he doesn't love children. His story ventures would have been sufficed yesterday had he stood on Vine street and seen a heard a sweet little cherub of three bright ners were and how! and pound his little bug with its little footlike tools, and yell and rattle and rare and sheer and call names, and bite and equal and shrike and bob and scrooch, because they wouldn't give him that big railroad sign the I. C. and A. R. R. Company, ninety feet long to play with. And if the sign hadn't been taken at the second story of the building where the young rooster would have and it— it— was a Night.
